

Joseph F. Smith
"Papa"

Joseph Fielding Smith loved spending time with his uncle,
the Prophet Joseph Smith.
Joseph told him he was drinking too much milk,
his skin was too white.

Early on June 24, 1844 Hyrum said goodbye to his family. He picked Joseph up and kissed him.
He told him to be a good boy
while Papa was away.

When not yet 8 years old,
Joseph drove the oxen
to Winter Quarters.

Joseph loved to ride horses.

Joseph served a mission to Hawaii when he was only 15.

Papa loves all of his children,
And grandchildren....

He loves you!
